A2T Program is a market access sprint program specifically designed for non-Taiwanese Tech startups to engage the Taiwan startup ecosystem. The program is a great opportunity for overseas startups to access Taiwan's manufacturing, R&D and traditional high-tech industries as well as our deep tech talent pool. A2T Program is connected with several Taiwan accelerators, which has a strong network of corporates, investors, venture builders and the top minds of different industries to help you establish a presence in Asia.
